RELEVANT EVENT – ZINKIA ENTERTAINMENT, S.A.

Dear Sirs,

Pursuant to MAB Memorandum 9//2010 and in order to make this relevant event available to the public, we inform the Market that on October 4th, 2010, Zinkia Entertainment, S.A. was served with a judicial claim filed by Mr. Guillermo García Carsi, one of the three co-authors of TV character Pocoyó.

The plaintiff has requested the annulment of the agreements of the scriptwriter, co-scriptwriter, co-director, co-producer and maker of Pocoyó series with Zinkia Entertainment, S.A. and, alternatively, several sums of money by way of compensation and/or review.

Under his agreement, Mr. García, as co-author, is entitled to be paid 0.5% of the net profits from the exploitation of the Pocoyó Series First Season. The plaintiff requested the courts to increase such percentage up to 10% for license exploitation, and up to 2% for audiovisual exploitation. In addition, he requested to be paid a compensation equal to the amount resulting from retroactive application of such increase.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any doubt or need clarification.

Yours faithfully,

José María Castillejo Oriol
President of the Board of Directors
